
JOAN S. BRUNER

Joan S. Bruner is a twinless twin having lost her identical twin, Jan, at the age of three and a half. She is a Licensed Clinical Social Worker with a private practice in San Diego, CA. Joan is also a professor in the graduate School of Social Work at San Diego State University. She specializes in the areas of grief and loss and interpersonal relationships. The work she does with twinless twins is on a no fee basis as her way of giving back to the twin community.

Joan leads breakout groups at national Twinless Twins Conferences. She specializes in the early loss aspects of losing your twin. She worked with Dr. Raymond Brandt from the onset of his founding Twinless Twins Support Group and has served as a resource for the organization.
